Lesson Three: Music, Art & Emotion

Student Worksheet

Video Lesson: Music & Emotion

Have a look at the following emotions and have a think about what each one means. If you are not sure you might like to ask a parent or teacher what they mean.

DEPRESSED	CONFUSED
CHEERFUL	EXHAUSTED
BORED	JEALOUS
TERRIFIED	PROUD
SHY

Now listen to the short pieces of music that Sharon plays, and see if you can match each of the above words to the musical example. Remember there are no right or wrong answers here – each person might feel a different emotion for different music.

Brainstorm: Emotion words

Write down as many words as you can think of that express an emotion. You can start with the examples we have given you – and try and think of some more!

Art and Emotion

Now have a look at the following artworks (links are on the website) and use some of these words to describe the emotions you feel when you look at them:

Edvard Munch: The Scream

Describe what you feel when you see this painting. What do you think the artist might have been feeling?

Pablo Picasso: Melancholy woman

Describe what you feel when you see this painting. What do you think the woman in the picture might be feeling?

Jackson Pollock: Number 1

Describe what you feel when you see this painting. What do you think the artist might have been feeling?

Music and Emotion

Listen to the three music clips on the website, and describe the emotions you can hear in the music, or how they make you feel

Dimitri Shostakovich: Chamber Symphony

What emotions can you hear in the music?

Ralph Vaughn Williams: The Lark Ascending

What emotions can you hear in the music?

Gustav Mahler: Song of the Earth

What emotions can you hear in the music?
